FOURTH ANNUAL PIONEER DAYS, CARBONDALE, PA.

August 23-28, 1982

The Pioneer Days Committee and the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, Inc. have scheduled a wide variety of activities for this week-long, non-profit community celebration, which will take place in and around Carbondale's historic City Hall and in downtown Carbondale (the oldest incorporated city in Lackawanna County).

The Pioneer Days Committee has scheduled:

--daily band concerts, between 8 P.M. and midnight, by headline bands, including the United States Air Force Band of the East (priority seating reservations for senior citizens); each of these evening concerts will be preceded by opening acts of magicians, singing groups, karate exhibitions, &c.

--Fourth Annual Pioneer Days Parade, 1-4 P.M., August 28, 1982

--Miss Carbondale Pioneer Days Beauty Pagent, August 22, 1982

In addition, more than 50 individuals and organizations will set up booths around City Hall and in Memorial Park and vend their wares.
